

2026 Fall

Reflective Practice Trainings

FAN

Facilitating Attuned Interactions

FAN Training is a dynamic program designed to equip professionals with the skills to utilize the FAN model in their day-to-day interactions.

FAN teaches professionals how to respond with empathy, deepen connections, and communicate effectively using developmental principles and personal reflection.

Pre-Training Reflective Consultation: Sept. 2026

Initial Training: Nov. 17-18, 2026
Advanced Training: May 18, 2027

Training held virtually
Includes 6 mentoring sessions

Training Cost: $1,200

Scan the QR code to learn more and register

nebraskababies.com/events/open8

CE-CERT

Components for Enhancing Career Experience and Reducing Trauma

CE-CERT is a model developed by Dr. Brian Miller that supports helping professionals manage stress and stay balanced in their work. CE-CERT teaches practical skills for emotional regulation and resilience, transforming how professionals experience their work in the moment.

In-Person Training (10 hours):
Oct. 13-14, 2026

Training held at UNL-CCFL Offices (Lincoln)
Includes 10 virtual consultation calls

(Optional but strongly recommended)

Extended Learning Session
Supervising Intensive (3 hours):
Oct. 14, 2026

Training Cost: $1,000

Scan the QR code to learn more and register

nebraskababies.com/events/ce-cert-open2

Nebraska Center on Reflective Practice

More information at nebraskababies.com/ncrp